

Product Fact Sheet (Pre-Contract Explanation Sheet)

“Step-Up Callable USD”

USD denominated Structured Deposit with Early Redemption Clause

(This is a “Pre-Contract Explanation Sheet” that is required to be delivered pursuant to applicable laws and regulations.)

PLEASE READ THIS DOCUMENT CAREFULLY.

- “Step-Up Callable USD” (USD denominated Structured Deposit with Early Redemption Clause) (the “Deposit”) is a deposit in US Dollar (“USD”), with a special clause (the “Early Redemption Clause”) under which the Bank will determine whether or not to early redeem it before maturity. If the Bank determines to employ the Early Redemption Clause, the Deposit will be redeemed on the next Early Redemption Date and interest on the Deposit will not be paid thereafter.
- In principle, the Deposit may not be cancelled by the customer. If the Bank considers and accepts that cancelling the Deposit by the customer is unavoidable and agrees to the cancellation before maturity, the cancellation proceeds may fall substantially short of the principal amount of the Deposit.
- The Deposit carries a foreign exchange fluctuation risk. Due to possible fluctuations, the Yen equivalent amount of the amount actually received in USD could be smaller than the original amount in JPY paid at the time of deposit contract (or, in case if the Deposit is established with the USD funds, smaller than the Yen equivalent amount of such USD funds converted at the foreign exchange rate prevailing at the time of deposit contract) (i.e., there is a risk of loss of principal on a JPY basis).

【Early Redemption Clause and Investment Yield】

- With regard to the Deposit, the Bank will determine whether or not to employ the Early Redemption Clause on each Early Redemption Evaluation Date which is set at five business days prior to each Interest Payment Date (that is set semi-annually from the Deposit Start Date (Deposit Date)). If the Bank determines to employ the Early Redemption Clause, the Deposit will be early redeemed on the immediately subsequent Early Redemption Date. In that event, the interest on the Deposit will not be paid thereafter.
- Early Redemption Clause tends to be employed at the time when the market interest rate would generally be lower than the Interest Rate of the Deposit. Therefore, depending on the interest rates as at the time of early redemption of the Deposit, there is a risk that the aggregate of the return on the Deposit and the return on reinvestment may be less than the return on the time deposit of the same duration which can be established as at the time of establishment of the Deposit.

- In the event of Early Redemption Clause being not employed, the Interest Rate, which is determined at the time of establishment of the Deposit and which will change as scheduled, will be applied until the maturity. Therefore, the customer could miss the opportunity to invest his/her funds with a higher interest rate if the interest rate in the market becomes higher after the establishment of the Deposit.

【Foreign Exchange Risk】

- The Deposit carries a foreign exchange fluctuation risk. Due to possible fluctuations, the Yen equivalent amount of the amount actually received in USD could be smaller than the original amount in JPY at the time of deposit contract. (or, in case if the Deposit is established with the USD funds, smaller than the Yen equivalent amount of such USD funds converted at the foreign exchange rate prevailing at the time of deposit contract) (i.e., there is a risk of loss of principal on a JPY basis).

【Cancellation】

- In principle, the Deposit may not be cancelled by the customer after the establishment.
- If the Bank considers and accepts it unavoidable and agrees to the cancellation before maturity, the interest rate on the Deposit will be reduced to zero percent (0%). Further, the customer may be required to pay the Cancellation Damages calculated as per the Bank's prescribed formula at anytime once the Application Period has finished, even before the Deposit Start Date (Deposit Date). As a result, the cancellation proceeds may fall substantially short of the principal amount of the Deposit.

【Fees】

- No transaction fees will be charged for the establishment of the Deposit; however, if the customer elects to exchange the JPY funds into USD when applying for the Deposit and/or to exchange the USD funds received upon early redemption or maturity redemption of the Deposit into JPY, the foreign exchange fees (JPY 1 per USD 1.00) as prescribed by the Bank will be charged.

Early Redemption Clause	General Description of the Clause	The Bank will determine whether or not to employ the Early Redemption Clause on each Early Redemption Evaluation Date. If the Early Redemption Clause is employed, the Deposit will be redeemed in USD on the immediately subsequent Early Redemption Date and interest on the Deposit will not be paid thereafter.
	Early Redemption Date	The “Early Redemption Date” means a redemption date of the Deposit before the Maturity Date, if the Early Redemption Clause is employed. The Early Redemption Dates shall be the same dates as the semiannual Interest Payment Dates (excepting the Maturity Date) which are the semiannual corresponding dates from the Deposit Start Date (Deposit Date).

Employment of Early Redemption Clause	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The “Early Redemption Evaluation Date” means each of the days that is five business days prior to each Early Redemption Date. The Bank will determine, in its discretion, whether or not to employ the Early Redemption Clause on each Early Redemption Evaluation Date. ● If the Bank determines to employ the Early Redemption Clause, the Deposit will be redeemed on the Early Redemption Date immediately subsequent to such Early Redemption Evaluation Date. ● In the event of Early Redemption, interest on the Deposit will not be paid thereafter.
Handling at Early Redemption	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● If the Bank determines to employ the Early Redemption Clause, the principal and interest of the Deposit will be redeemed in USD on the Early Redemption Date (which is immediately subsequent to the Early Redemption Evaluation Date when such determination is made) by means of crediting it to the customer’s Multi Currency Savings Account (USD). There will not be any automatic renewal for the Deposit. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ After the early redemption proceeds being credited to the Multi Currency Savings Account (USD), the applicable savings account interest rate will be applied. ➤ The Bank will send a notice via post about the details of the early redemption.
Handling at Maturity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● In case of maturity redemption, the principal and interest of the Deposit will be redeemed in USD by means of crediting it to the Multi Currency Savings Account (USD) on the Maturity Date. There will not be any automatic renewal for the Deposit. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ After the maturity redemption proceeds being credited to the Multi Currency Savings Account (USD), the applicable savings account interest rate will be applied. ➤ The Bank will send a notice via post about the details of the maturity redemption.
Deposit Insurance Protection	Deposits with the Bank in Japan are not protected by the Deposit Insurance scheme in Japan.
Cancellation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● In principle, the application as well as the Deposit may not be cancelled by the customer after the time prescribed by the Bank on the last date of the Application Period even if it is before Deposit Start Date (Deposit Date). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ If the Bank considers and accepts it unavoidable and agrees to the cancellation of the application or the cancellation of the Deposit before maturity, the interest rate from the preceding Interest Payment Date (or the Deposit Start Date (Deposit Date), if before the first Interest Payment Date) until the Cancellation Date will be reduced to zero percent (0%). ➤ The customer may be required to pay the Cancellation Damages calculated as per the Bank’s prescribed formula at anytime once the Application Period has finished, even before the Deposit Start Date (Deposit Date). As a result, the cancellation proceeds may fall substantially short of the principal amount of the Deposit.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ It will require a few business days to complete the procedure after the cancellation request.
Cancellation Damages	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● The Bank will calculate, as per the Bank's prescribed formula, the amount needed for the restructuring for the derivative transaction etc. incorporated in the Deposit, for the period between the Cancellation Date and the Maturity Date (the "Remaining Period"). The customer will be required to pay such amount as "Cancellation Damages" by means of deduction from the principal amount of the Deposit. ➤ Consequently, the amount of Cancellation Damages cannot be fixed at the time the Deposit is established. The amount of Cancellation Damages may change depending on the market conditions, the number of days of the Remaining Period, etc. ➤ The amount of the Cancellation Damages, that will be calculated as per the Bank's prescribed formula using the market rates that the Bank deems reasonable, tends to become greater if the interest rate in the market becomes higher and the period from the establishment of the Deposit is shorter (the Remaining Period is longer). ➤ Even when the markets do not change at all, the Cancellation Damages equivalent to 2-6 % of the principal may be incurred. (Such amount may vary depending on such factors as the amount of deposit, period, etc.) * For the specific amount of Cancellation Damages, please confirm at the HSBC Premier Centre or the Relationship Manager. Cancellation Damages Image  (i) Evaluation of Difference between the Deposit Rate and Market Interest Rate (ii) Value of Early Redemption Clause
Tax	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Interest received is subject to the 20% withholding tax (national tax 15% and local tax 5%). The tax percentages might vary depending on the other factors such as the customer's residency or special tax treatment; please note that the customer should consult with independent professionals, such as tax accountant, for advice. ➤ The tax-free small-sum savings system ("Maruyu") is not applicable for interest on the Deposit.
